Fun with Phenology

2016-2017
Journey through the four seasons with local outdoor experts.

The Eveleth Public Library
September – May
Third Tuesdays
3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

Once a month:

- Study at the library with a guest naturalist,
- Followed by a phenology hike through Fayal Pond.
- Unlock the secrets of our great Northwoods.
- Participate in reporting your monthly phenology finds.
- Share your knowledge with other outdoor enthusiasts.

For Nature-lovers of all ages

(An adult must accompany students under the age of 13)

Programs are free of charge. Dress for the weather!

Call 744-7499 for any questions

Sponsored by
The University of Minnesota
Extension Office
Master Naturalist Program and the Eveleth Public Library

Guest Lecturers

GONE WITH THE WINDS: THE BIRDS OF HAWK RIDGE — SEPT. 20
Clinton Nienhaus: Sax-Zim Naturalist

SIGNS OF THE SEASONS: A REFRESHER CLASS IN PHENOLOGY — OCT. 18
John Latimer: KAXE Radio Phenologist

CLIMATE CHANGE: IS ANYBODY LISTENING? — NOV. 15
Dr. George Erickson: Author/Bush Pilot/
Nat'l Center for Science Education

THE WINTER SOLSTICE: EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT THE LONGEST NIGHT OF THE YEAR. — DEC. 20
Dennis Elj: Retired Surveyor/Astronomer

BEHIND THE LENS: NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY — JAN. 17
Ken Hupila: Nature Photographer

MAMMAL TRACKING: DECIPHERING MYSTERIOUS WINTER TRAILS — FEB. 21
JEss Edberg: Dir Dorothy Molter Museum

SPRING SPAWNING AND USING A DICHOTOMOUS KEY TO ID FISH — MAR. 21
Bill Tefft: Retired Ely CC Instructor

HOW TO FIND, IDENTIFY, AND PREPARE WILD EDIBLE PLANTS — APRIL 18
Jim DeVries/Bobbie Zenner
Laurentian Env Cntr Naturalists

BUTTERFLIES: IN YOUR YARD AND BEYOND — MAY 16
Pat Thomas: Educator/Photographer